Hello, I'm Ken. Today I want to tell you about my Canadian host family. I stayed with them during summer vacation. The family lives in Vancouver. Do you know where that city is? It's a beautiful city on the west coast of Canada, not far from Seattle.

My host family has four members: the two parents and their two sons, Todd and Chris. Todd is the same age as me, 16 years old, and Chris is 14. Both of the sons love to play baseball. I was happy because I am also a baseball player. We played baseball together every day in a park near their home.

My host parents are both junior high school teachers. It was summer vacation for them so they had lots of free time. In the afternoons, they often showed me around Vancouver.

Next summer Todd and Chris will visit my home in Chiba. I want to visit some baseball stadiums with them.

(1) Why was Ken happy in Canada?

- ① Because Vancouver is not far from Seattle.
- ② Because Todd and Chris loved baseball.
- ③ Because there was a park near the host family's house.
- ④ Because the host family had four members.

(2) What did Ken's host parents do for him?

- ① They took him to some places in Vancouver.
- ② They taught at his junior high school.
- ③ They visited his house in summer.
- ④ They gave him lots of free time.
